"The Greatest Blessing that has ever come to man was the invention of the ice-machine by Thomas Masters, of London, in 1844." Thus a writer of the day wrote of the machine that turned out about 6 pounds of ice and was used only in homes of luxury. Today Knickerbocker has 23 plants in the Metropolitan district, and pure, clean, manufactured ice is within the reach of all—making for luxury, comfort and health.

MRS. FELTON THANKS SENATE FOR A SPEECH

First Woman to Address Body Remained Member 22 1-2 Hours.

MAKES A PREDICTION

Declares Feminine Senators to Come Will Meet Requirements.

CHAMBER APPLAUDS HER

Walter F. George Then Is Seated and 'Grand Old Lady of Georgia' Is Retired.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—For the first time in its history the United States Senate listened to-day to a speech delivered by a woman Senator when Mrs. Rebecca Latimer Felton of Georgia delivered her salutatory address. At its close she was vigorously applauded, the Senators leading in the demonstration.

Then Senator Harris (Ga.) presented the credentials of Judge Walter F. George, elected as the successor to the late Senator Thomas E. Watson. He had withheld his credentials so that Mrs. Felton could qualify as a full fledged Senator.

The oath was administered to Judge George as a Senator and Mrs. Felton automatically became an ex-Senator. She had served as a Senator for twenty-two hours, and 25 minutes. She remained in the chamber until the Senate adjourned an hour later.

Mrs. Felton's Address. "Mr. President," said Mrs. Felton, in her address, "in my remarkable campaign in Georgia, which contrary to precedent all came along after I was selected, one of the very amusing things that came to me by mail was a cartoon from San Antonio. The cartoon represented the United States Senate in session. The seats seemed to be fully occupied and there appeared in the picture the figure of a woman who had evidently entered without sending in her card. The gentlemen of the Senate took the situation seriously. Some seemed to be a little hysterical, but most of them occupied their time looking at the ceiling. Over the cartoon were written these wonderful words: 'Will they ask the lady to take a chair?'

"I want to return my thanks to-day for the beautiful, hospitable welcome that you have accorded to the lady when you gave her a chair. "I also want to return thanks to the noble men of Georgia. Georgia was very slow in her promises with reference to woman suffrage. She has been rapid to perform. One chivalrous Governor went to the front and said: 'Send that old lady there and let her look at the Senate for a short time.' "The Senator-elect from Georgia said: 'She shall have her day there and I want to thank him in this presence. He is a worthy successor. He has been most chivalrous. The sitting member of Georgia has been most obliging. Indeed, I feel like I am the happiest woman in the United States. I am at home in the Senate for a minute. I appreciate the peaceful home and beautiful atmosphere given me everywhere. "I want to say further that I commend your attention to the 10,000,000 women voters who are watching this incident. It is a romantic incident. Senators, but to the history of the world. If Lady Astor from the State of Virginia can go to London and be accepted as a member of the British House of Commons, you can take this woman, who is the old Georgia, and she has never flickered in her patriotism to her country and you can be very well assured that she is not going to disgrace her commission.

She Makes a Prophecy. "Let me say, Mr. President, that when the women of the country come in and sit with you, although there may be but very few of them in the next few years, I pledge you that you will get ability, you will get integrity of purpose, you will get exalted patriotism and you will get untold usefulness.

"Mr. President and Senators, I thank you very much for this hearing. "Senator Harris introduced a resolution to pay Mrs. Felton certain salary and mileage. She has drawn her pay under the regular law from the date of her appointment to election day and Senator Harris' resolution provides payment up to date. The resolution reads: "Resolved, that the Secretary of the Senate be and hereby is authorized and directed to pay from the contingent fund of the Senate to Rebecca Latimer Felton, two hundred and eighty-seven and 67-100 dollars ($287.67) for compensation and two hundred and eighty dollars ($280) as mileage, the same being amounts due her as Senator from the State of Georgia from November 8 to November 21, 1922."

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Contingent Expenses.

JERSEY ELECTRIC RATE MAY BE CUT DEC. 1
Million a Year Savings Promised to Consumers.

The directors of the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey have voted to reduce the uniform electric lighting rate and the uniform retail power rate effective with December sales. This will result in a saving of at least $1,000,000 a year to consumers. More than 90 per cent of the corporation's customers will be affected. The new base rate will be 9 cents a kilowatt hour instead of 10 cents, with corresponding cuts in the second, third and fourth steps of the lighting rates. Soon after the Public Service Electric Company filed with the New Jersey Public Utilities Commission yesterday at Newark a new schedule calling for a reduction of from 10 to 9 cents a kilowatt hour next month for electric lighting and retail power rates. A. N. Barlow, secretary of the commission, said the Commissioners could not accept the new rate until its reasonableness is determined. Coincidentally with the filing of the new rate schedule the Public Service Corporation common stock was restored to its pre-war period annual basis.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Urges Workday Reform

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 22.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in a letter to the editor of the Chattanooga News, declares that no matter how difficult, conditions of employment of labor must be changed. "I agree with you," the letter says, "that no matter how difficult it may be to abolish objectionable methods that have long prevailed, it can be done, it should be done, and must be done. Public opinion should be educated until it should become irresistible."

The letter was in reply to an editorial expression of the newspaper on Mr. Rockefeller's statement concerning the twelve hour day in the steel industry.

DAUGHERTY SEEKS WAY TO CURB KLAN

Sorties Across State Borders May Give Government Basis for Acting.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Department of Justice experts are delving into the penal statutes for possible grounds on which the Federal Government might proceed against members of the Ku Klux Klan who have crossed State boundaries to commit depredations. While the attitude of the department is to allow State authorities to employ their legal resources to cope with the atrocities for which the Klan is blamed, the Attorney-General is giving careful consideration to the many complaints to him by the Governors of a number of States in which the Ku Klux Klan is strongly entrenched.

The reports of Federal district attorneys also are being closely studied, they do not embody recommendations but merely set forth facts concerning alleged offenses by the Klan which have gone unpunished by State authorities.

Gov. Parker of Louisiana, who left Washington last night after a fruitless appeal to President Harding to step into the Louisiana situation immediately with Federal assistance, was given very definite assurance both by the President and the Attorney-General that the Federal Government is prepared for emergency legislation if State authorities find themselves powerless to cope with the Klan menace.

Representative Aswell (La.), on a point of privileged question, to-day called the attention of the House to "serious statements appearing in the Washington Post and other papers," and deplored the "slanders on the State of Louisiana."

He read a telegram he had sent to the sheriffs and judges in his district and their answers, saying the courts and other agencies of the law were functioning properly and that the Ku Klux Klan was not in supremacy. He declared Louisiana was not in need of Federal assistance, and said if Gov. Parker was correctly quoted as saying it was, "it was for some ulterior motive."

Gov. Parker, he charged, had designs on a seat in the Senate and was using the Ku Klux scandal to promote his ambition.

PLAN NATIONWIDE BAND OF KLAN LIKE WOMEN
Dixie Protestant Women Project Big Membership Drive.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

ATLANTA, Nov. 22.—Following a sensational and unannounced parade Tuesday night by 300 women arrayed in masks and robes very much like the regalia of the Ku Klux Klan the Dixie Protestant Women's Political League has announced that organizers are busy forming branches in other cities of Georgia and in other States. They said their league was in no way allied with the Ku Klux Klan.

"We weren't dangerous," said Mrs. E. N. Gibbs, president of the league, to-day. "It was just the first public appearance of the Dixie Protestant Women's Political League."

"We are in politics from the word go, our principles are of the rock ribbed 100 per cent. American brand, and we stand ready to help our Government and flag at the risk of our lives."

When Mrs. Gibbs was asked why her organization works masks she said: "Because we want to protect ourselves and because we can find out more about politics that way."

LLOYD IN OVERALLS, NOW CONVICT 8385

Millionaire Red's $200,000 Outlay for Defense of No Avail.

GOES TO WORK TO-DAY

His Job Not Assigned, but It Won't Be as Prison Teacher.

EARLY PARDON EXPECTED

Rumors Predict Parole Within a Month, Then Full Liberty.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

JOLIET, Ill., Nov. 22.—William Brock Lloyd, millionaire Chicago Communist, became convict 8385 to-day. His individuality, which he fought in every court in the land to retain, was stripped from him by penitentiary routine that bathed, shaved, tagged and dressed him in a blue denim prison suit. Lloyd has entered on a term of one to five years for violating the State espionage law. He was convicted three years ago. For two days prior to his surrender to the penitentiary authorities here at midnight last night he was in the Joliet home of Robert Wilson, State Parole Superintendent.

State Knew Hiding Place. According to Mrs. Wilson, the State Board of Pardons and Parole was aware that Lloyd, ordered to prison a week earlier by the Illinois Supreme Court, was in hiding there.

"We talked it over with the Parole Board first," Mrs. Wilson said. "No objection was raised. The board also approved our plan of getting Mr. Lloyd into prison without letting newspaper men know."

There are persistent rumors that the State Administration has decided to pardon Lloyd soon, on the theory advanced by his friends that the law he was convicted of breaking, is a wartime statute, which should be treated less sternly in times of peace.

Talk is current also, that Gov. Small will parole Lloyd within a month. It is understood that the applications for clemency for Lloyd and the other seventeen convicted "reds" will be made to the Governor at once.

No. 8385 will be assigned to a prison job to-morrow. What his job will be the prison authorities have not decided. Warden Whitman has said Lloyd will be given "something in keeping with his intelligence," but reports that he would be assigned to the prison school as a teacher, were denied officially.

Lloyd took his fate cheerfully, realizing that he will be treated like any prisoner, getting no special privileges nor unfair restrictions. He is required to spend his term of one to five years at "hard labor," as prison by-law, though the labor need not be manual.

Clings to Red Doctrine. While Lloyd refused to speak for publication, one who has been in close touch with him during the last few days declared he still believes he has been right in theory. His views are unchanged, although he feels he has been undiplomatic.

Lloyd was arrested during the war by Chicago police for decorating his automobile with a red flag subsuming the American flag. When arrested he said he had no apologies to offer for flying the red flag above the Stars and Stripes. He maintained that the red flag was his flag and that he displayed the American flag as a matter of courtesy to the American Government.

The conviction of Lloyd and the other seventeen men came on January 23 and Lloyd and his associates fought the case through every court but they had only when the United States Supreme Court refused to review the decision of the lower courts. Lloyd then requested a stay of one week from the State Supreme Court to arrange his affairs. This was refused, an incident that Lloyd resented, saying he was not allowed as much courtesy as a murderer. He had been indicted for arranging his affairs. This was refused, an incident that Lloyd resented, saying he was not allowed as much courtesy as a murderer. He had been indicted for arranging his affairs. This was refused, an incident that Lloyd resented, saying he was not allowed as much courtesy as a murderer. He had been indicted for arranging his affairs.

His Fortune Exceeds $6,000,000. William Brock Lloyd inherited close to a million from his father, the late Henry Demarest Lloyd, a rich Boston philanthropist, but he is now rated as being worth in excess of $6,000,000.

Lloyd is a heavy stockholder in several of Chicago's largest manufacturing companies. He owns but one real estate. He owns a country home at Winnetka, a suburb of Chicago, valued at $600,000. He is paying his first wife from whom he was divorced five years ago, $12,000 a year alimony. This allowance provides for his four children also. Lloyd has contributed upward of $100,000 to the Communist-Labor party during the last two years. Lloyd spent $300,000 in attorney fees in his three year fight in his efforts to escape the penitentiary.

OFFER $12,000 REWARD IN FIVE DOLLAR THEFT
Postal Authorities Will Pay High for Bandits.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The Post Office Department to-night offered rewards totaling $12,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of six bandits alleged to have held up and robbed a mail truck en route to Checkerboard Plying Field with air mail this morning.

A. E. Germer, chief postal inspector, said he did not believe the robbers got more than $5 out of the 450 pounds of mail taken.

110 Students Compete for Princeton's Daily

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 22.—An unprecedented interest in journalism was shown here to-day when one-sixth of the entire freshman class entered an editorial competition for the Daily Princetonian. This activity attracted 110 candidates, the largest number in fifty-five years' history of the campus daily. Several prominent personages "beelied" the Princetonian in their undergraduate days, including ex-President Wilson and Dean Fine, head of the department of science at Princeton.

OPPOSE NEGRO FOR U. S. JOB IN SOUTH

Senators Say Harding Nomination Might Lead to Race War.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—President Harding to-day raised the ire of the Southern Democrats in the Senate when he sent in the nominations of Walter L. Cohen to be ensign in the coast guard at New Orleans and of George V. Denny of Savannah to be Commissioner of Customs, District No. 29, with headquarters at New Orleans. Cohen is a negro. Senator Russell (La.) says the President promised him he would not name any negroes to Federal offices in his State because of the large negro population and the keen prejudice which prevails. He announced he would fight the confirmation to the limit. The Senator added that if Cohen is confirmed he would be placed in charge of white men and women in the same office, "a condition which might bring about a race war in the State."

President Harding sent the name of Mr. Denny to the Senate last spring. Senator Watson of Georgia blocked the confirmation on the ground that Denny was "personally objectionable." Southern Senators take umbrage at the action of the President in renaming Denny after Senator Watson's death.

DEFEATED BONUS BILL REAPPEARS IN HOUSE

It Is Referred to Ways and Means Committee.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—Representative Johnson (S. D.) to-day reintroduced in the House the soldier bonus bill passed by the House and Senate and vetoed by the President.

The measure is sponsored by the American Legion. The Ways and Means Committee, to which the measure was referred, will try to devise some method to raise the money to pay the bonus.

Some Ways and Means Committee members favor amending the bonus bill so as to give a spot cash bonus to all ex-service men who desire it. The Secretary of the Treasury would be required to pay the cash bonus with whatever money is available and to raise the additional funds by the sale of bonds.

There seems little likelihood of the bonus bill receiving much consideration in the Sixty-seventh Congress, as American Legion officials are convinced that there are enough votes in the Senate to uphold the President's veto. That the President will veto any bonus bill that does not provide for a means of raising the money they do not doubt.

FEDERATION OF LABOR REJECTS RED OVERTURE

Will Not Join in Conference at The Hague.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau, Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The executive committee of the American Federation of Labor voted unanimously to-day against participation by the representatives of American organized labor in the international anti-war conference to be held at The Hague on December 10.

In turning down the invitation to participate in the conference, the international Federation of Trades Unions, the American Federation of Labor specified the reasons why it could not participate, the chief being that the Hague conference is bound in advance to the support of a combined international strike by labor, irrespective of whether war is offensive or defensive.

The American Federation also disapproves of the conference program which calls for the nationalization of all wealth, including raw materials and manufactured products. It is also opposed to the aims of the conference to support principles of a communistic character such as the international strike.

BETWEEN 5 AND 6 P. M. EXTRA HAZARDOUS TIME

Dr. Copeland Gives Statistics on Motor Accidents.

Between 5 and 6 o'clock P. M. is the most dangerous time to be in the street, according to accident statistics gathered by the Department of Health. Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Health Commissioner and Senator-elect, said last night at a dinner of the United States Human Safety and Road Educational Association at the Hotel Commodore, that pedestrians are tired at that hour and slower in making their decisions. He recommended stricter license laws. The association has been recently organized to combat carelessness and incompetency among drivers of automobiles.

SMITH OPENS FIGHT ON NIAGARA GRANTS

Governor-Elect Wants His Administration Free to Handle Matter.

BOARD MEETS TO-DAY

Fears Concession for Use of Energy Developed in Lower River.

CITES ELECTION RESULT

Rest in South Will Extend Over the Thanksgiving Holiday.

Gov.-elect Smith wrote yesterday to Charles D. Newton, State Attorney-General, protesting against the granting of franchises to private companies to develop State water power. Mr. Smith said he was informed that the Water Power Commission would meet to-day and might grant a concession to some company to develop electricity from the Niagara River below the falls. His letter follows:

"My DEAR GENERAL: "It has been called to my attention that the State Water Power Commission is to meet at Albany to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. I have been further informed by a newspaper article that it is the intention of the commission to act upon some applications for licenses to develop electrical energy by private corporations. The paper that I read says that there is a possibility that a license may be granted to some company to develop energy from the waters of Niagara below the falls. "Before and during the campaign I took a decided position with regard to the development of electrical energy from water power owned by the State. I have held that it should not be given to private companies for private development, but should, on the other hand, be developed by the State itself under State ownership and State control for the benefit of all the people of the State. "I would therefore ask you, in view of the decision of the people at the polls following the campaign in which the subject was a distinct issue, not to grant any license or permits to private corporations for the development of electrical energy from water power resources that belong to the State and permit the subject to be dealt with by the incoming administration in accordance with the explicit promises made during the course of the campaign.

Mr. Smith gave out this letter at the Baltimore last night on the eve of his departure for the South, where he will remain over Thanksgiving as the guest of William H. Todd with the incoming administration.

The whole question is whether the State will give fifty year permits for private profit, or whether the State will do the work itself. "I am writing this letter as a private citizen. Of course, nothing I can do can stop it if they want to grant these private licenses."

The Water Power Commission is composed of the Speaker of the Assembly, H. Edgar, and the Attorney-General, Attorney-General Newton, Frank M. Williams, State Engineer, and Alexander MacDonell, State Commissioner of Education, all Republicans.

Two companies have applied for permits to develop Niagara water power. They are the Lower Niagara River Water Supply Company and the Niagara Gorge Railroad Company. Both have filed applications with the commission and will be heard to-day. Applications for permits to make surveys and plans preparatory to applying formally for a Niagara water power license.

The Governor-elect said he is going away for a rest and will not talk or think of politics until his return next month. He declined to say what his plans are on transit, prohibition, or any other issue, except that he stands on his campaign platform. He also declined to name any persons under consideration for appointive offices.

Dr. Charles W. Berry, Adjutant-General in Smith's first administration, Brigadier-General in the Twenty-seventh Division during the war and a well known Brooklyn physician, called on Mr. Smith yesterday. It was learned on good authority that Dr. Berry is to be reappointed Adjutant-General.

Mr. Todd is an old friend of Mr. Smith. He is a member of a shipbuilding firm and the authority of the Governor-elect, "the best volunteer fireman in Brooklyn," John F. Gilchrist, Commissioner of Licenses, who was treasurer of the Smith campaign committee, also will be of the party.

BEECKMAN TESTIFIES IN HIS LIBEL ACTION

Trial Begins With Evidence on $1,500 Payment.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 22.—Former Governor R. Livingston Beeckman, defeated for the United States Senate in the recent election by Senator Peter G. Gerry, took the stand to-day as a witness for the defense in his own case charging that he was criminally libeled by the Providence News, which accused him of bribery during the campaign.

Mr. Beeckman's counsel offered in evidence a copy of the publication and contended that the burden of proof that the article was true and without malice rested with the defendants, who are John A. Hennessey of New York, editor of the Providence News; Perry Dewitt Hamilton and the Hope Publishing Company.

The witness admitted the payment of $1,500 to Herve J. Lagace of Woonsocket, Rhode Island, which was called a bribe in the alleged libelous article, but said the money was to defray legitimate campaign expenses.
